

WORDS OF GRATITUDE

“Unlike in the southern districts of Kerala, the collective efforts for development by the LSGs and the people of the northern areas, as Kasargode, often remain unidentified outside the area constrictioin. Under such conditions, Green Kerala Express social reality show is providing us a stage to project our activities of welfare and upliftment in front of a mass audience. This is anyhow going to be a fruitful venture for us. Being here is an indescribable honor and recognition.”- Madikkai Grama Panchayat President M.Rajan spoke to GKE Team.

WAIT AND WATCH

Before beginning the first recording of Green Kerala Express on February 15, 2010, Jury Member RVG Menon in a casual chat talked about the uniqueness of the Green Kerala Express reality show. “Its difference and social relevance is what makes this show unique and important. Through this show, an effort is being taken to make developmental endeavors popular. Its such a big challenge to be fulfilled. Bringing all these panchayaths together and trying to analyse their models of sustainable developments is not an easy job”.

“How the idea of the entire project of Green Kerala Express would be implemented is something to be realized eventually. I am waiting to perceive the same.” he added.

UNIQUE EFFORT WITH GOOD WILL

“I was a television addict from my childhood days, but of lately I have stopped watching television since there are no much quality programmes being telecasted. In this scenario programmes like Green Kerala Express is a unique effort with ample good will in it. More of like shows should be promoted”. Padmapriya Janakiraman (Actress, Celebrity Jury of GKE reality show) spoke during the inauguration of the Green Kerala Express recording.
